

PRESS RELEASE

Unilateral agreement AUTODIA - SABAM

18/10/2017

AUTODIA entered into a unilateral agreement with retrospective effect from 1/1/2017 with the Belgian Society SABAM, regarding the Rights of Public Performances and Mechanical Reproduction.

SABAM that was founded in 1922 at the initiative of a number of authors today represents thousands of authors from all disciplines. It is frequently associated only with music, but prides itself in its multidisciplinary character. It represents composers, text writers, publishers, playwrights, choreographers, directors, scriptwriters, dialogue writers, radio makers, subtitle authors, translators, novelists, poets, cartoonists, illustrators, journalists, sculptors, painters, video filmmakers, photographers, graphic artists, etc.

AUTODIA has already entered into unilateral agreements also with SGAE (Spain), SUISA (Switzerland) and ACUM (Israel).

On June 2017 our Organisation entered into a reciprocal agreement with retrospective effect from April 20th with the Italian Society SIAE regarding public performance rights.
